UNCONDITIONAL AND CONTINUING GUARANTY

This Guaranty made and entered into this _____ day of _____, 20____, by the undersigned, referred to hereinafter as “Guarantor(s)”

And

Monroe Oil Company, Inc. whose principal office is PO Box 1109, Monroe, NC 28111-1109, who may be referred to as “Creditor” or “Company”.

In consideration of one dollar ($1.00) and other valuable consideration, including the agreement of Creditor to extend credit or other financial accommodations, to:

“Applicant”

Address

The Guarantors, jointly and severally, guarantee unconditionally payment of all and any indebtedness or liability, direct or contingent, now owing or which may hereafter be owing or become due from the applicant to the creditor, its successors or assigns, and upon the failure of the applicant to pay promptly the full amount thereof when due by acceleration or otherwise, the guarantors, jointly and severally, promise to pay such indebtedness or liability on demand, together with interest, cost and reasonable attorney’s fees.

If applicant files in Bankruptcy Court and if the Trustee requires Company to refund payments made to the Company by the Applicant, such as, a “preference of creditors”, Guarantor(s) will pay the Company all amounts paid back to the Trustee, plus interest, cost and reasonable attorney’s fees.

This is intended as a continuing guaranty and no notice to the undersigned guarantors of Applicant’s indebtedness is required. This guaranty shall remain in full force and apply to all present and future matters and transactions until written notice of its discontinuance as to any further indebtedness or liability shall be received by the Company. If suit be brought to enforce the guaranty or any claim arising thereunder, it is expressly agreed that, at the option of the Company, the venue of such suit may be had in the County of Union, State of North Carolina.

The Guarantors may terminate this guaranty only by written notice sent by certified mail, return receipt requested or hand delivered to the Company. Termination shall not affect Guarantor(s) continuing obligation to the Company for payment of claim or debts, contingent or fixed, existing on the date of receipt of the notice.

The guarantor acknowledges that at the time of execution and/or delivery of this agreement there are not existent any conditions precedent, concurrent, or subsequent whatsoever, affecting, impairing, modifying, or changing in any manner or way the obligations of the guarantor to the Company hereunder, or the immediate taking effect of this guaranty as the agreement between the guarantor and the Company with respect to guaranteeing the Applicant's obligations to the Company.

The guarantor(s) agrees that this guaranty is an "evidence of indebtedness"; is legally enforceable; and the provisions of NCGS § 6-21.2 applies to this transaction.

Should any one or more provisions of this guaranty be determined to be illegal or unenforceable all other provisions shall remain effective and in full force.

The obligation of the undersigned in this agreement shall be joint and several, each with all or with any one or more of the others, and may be enforced against each separately or against any two or more jointly, or against some separately and some jointly, all at the sole option of the Company.
